

informative

Contributed by user
Monday, 01 September 2008
Last Updated Sunday, 05 July 2009

changes you made in the admin area are immediately visible on the public area, therefore do whatever you want to but be polite, you have only low privileges (manager) so you can do just a few operations on the admin website. On a normal installation the administrator has a lot of privileges and can change all aspects of the CMS. On the public website you can take a look of the template freely available to our customers. Just select them on the drop-down menu.